City	Things to do	Overnight Stay*
Day 1 - Landing to Persia (Tehran)
Tehran	Welcome to Iran! Your arrival will be at Imam Khomeini International Airport (IKA). After that, your guide meets and transfers you to the Hotel. You can rest and have free time.	4* hotel/traditional house
Day 2 - Museums
Tehran	On our first day of the tour, you will visit the Carpet Museum of Iran an exhibition of a variety of Persian carpets and kilims from all over Iran, dating from the 18th century up to the present. Get amazed at the eye-catching precious collection of carpets of Iranian 3500 years old. Then, you go to Carpet Bazaar which offers you a memorable experience. Meanwhile, the prices are negotiable. If you have enough time you can visit the Carpet Gallery with a beautiful collection of Persian rugs and carpets, all hand-woven.	4* hotel/traditional house
Day 3 - Shiraz Artists
Tehran/Shiraz	In the morning, you will fly to Shiraz. In the beginning, you visit one of the first and most wonderful Gabbeh weaving workshops in Shiraz before check-in. You get enchanted with the Persian Gabbeh designing and dyeing. After the hotel check-in head to Vakil Bazaar and then the Zand Complex including the castle, gardens, and mosque to get a sense of Shiraz as a capital 250 years ago and also the Shiraz carpet museum with the 300-year-old carpets.	4* hotel/traditional house
Day 4 - Nomad Life
Shiraz	Drive to Kahkaranas a virgin and amazing village in Shesh Pir Rural District (if the weather is hot). Firuzabad (in the weather is cold). You will get acquainted with the people weaving and spinning thread and you have ample time to wander around the rural context of the village. After that, you will stay overnight in the black tents of the nomad as a unique and pure experience.	Nomadic tent
Day 5 - Adobe City
Shiraz/Yazd	We have great sightseeing of Adobe city, located in the remote desert, the old city of Yazd* is built almost entirely of adobe and is an architectural wonder. We visit " Yakhchal "; these ancient refrigerators were used primarily to store ice for use in the summer, in Abarkuh you see the Cypress of Abarkuh also called the Zoroastrian Sarv. The exact age of the tree has been difficult to determine, but it is estimated to be between 4000 and 5000 years old.	4* hotel/traditional house
Day 6 - Yazd Details
Yazd/Isfahan	Today, in Yazd City we visit the Zurkhaneh ; the traditional gymnasium, where amateurs practice their strength and flexibility to the accompaniment of devotional music. Yazd has been a Zoroastrian center since Sassanian times. Zoroastrians still make up a significant minority of the population, and the Atashkadeh in Yazd is the most important Zoroastrian fire temple in Iran. The sacred flame visible behind glass in the interior of the fire temple is said to have been burning for over 1500 years. We visit the Fire Temple and its grounds, and then the Tower of Silence , or Dakhma, where the bodies of the deceased were placed, to avoid contaminating the earth as a Zoroastrian funerary tradition.	4* hotel/traditional house
